 - › if we change the rates at which points can be earned in this program
 - › if we limit the number of points you can earn

- We'll give you notice of other changes to the program or agreement by posting an updated copy of this agreement when you log in to our website, chase.com/amazonrewards.
- We won't provide notice when we change what you can get with your points. You understand and agree that we can make these changes at any time. You can see what you currently can get with your points when you log in to our website, chase.com/amazonrewards. Future availability of any specific items isn't guaranteed.

How you can earn points

1. You'll earn points when you, or an authorized user, use your card account to make purchases of products and services, minus returns or refunds (collectively, the “purchases”). Buying products and services with your card account, in most cases, will count as a purchase; however, the following types of transactions won't count and won't earn points:

- › balance transfers
- › cash advances
- › travelers checks, foreign currency, money orders, wire transfers or similar cash-like transactions
- › lottery tickets, casino gaming chips, race track wagers or similar betting transactions
- › any checks that access your card account
- › interest
- › unauthorized or fraudulent charges
- › fees of any kind, including an annual fee, if applicable

2. Rewards Categories: Merchants who accept Visa/MasterCard credit cards are assigned a merchant code, which is determined by the merchant or its processor in accordance with Visa/MasterCard procedures based on the kinds of products and services they primarily sell. We group similar merchant codes into categories for purposes of making rewards offers to you. Please note:

- › We make every effort to include all relevant merchant codes in our rewards categories. However, even though a merchant or some of the items that it sells may appear to fit within a rewards category, the merchant may not have a merchant code in that category. When this occurs, purchases with that merchant won't qualify for rewards offers on purchases in that category.
- › Purchases submitted by you, an authorized user, or the merchant through third-party payment accounts, mobile or wireless card readers, online or mobile digital wallets, or similar technology will not qualify in a rewards category if the technology is not set up to process the purchase in that rewards category. For more information about Chase rewards categories, see www.chase.com/rewardscategoryfaqs.

3. With 5-2-1 % Back rewards, you'll earn:

- › 5% Back for each $1 of eligible purchases made using your card account at Amazon.com. 5% Back is earned only on purchases made at Amazon.com (including digital downloads, Amazon.com Gift Cards, Amazon Fresh orders, Amazon Prime subscriptions, and items sold by third-party merchants through Amazon.com's marketplace). 5% Back is not earned on purchases from merchants using Pay with Amazon, or purchases made at international Amazon retail sites (including but not limited to Amazon.ca, Amazon.co.uk, Amazon.de, Amazon.fr, or Amazon.co.jp), or any other website operated by Amazon, in Amazon's sole discretion. This equates to $0.05 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 5 points, for each $1 spent.
 - For example, if you spend $100 using your card account on a purchase at Amazon.com, you will earn $5 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 500 points.
- › 2% Back for each $1 spent in the following rewards categories: gas stations; drugstores; restaurants; office supply stores through May 31, 2017. This equates to $0.02 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 2 points, for each $1 spent.
 - For example, if you spend $100 using your card account on a purchase in one of these categories, you will earn $2 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 200 points.
- › 1% Back for each $1 spent on all other purchases. This equates to $0.01 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 1 point, for each $1 spent.
 - For example, if you spend $100 using your card account on any other purchase, you will earn $1 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 100 points.

4. With 3-2-1 % Back rewards, you'll earn:

- › 3% Back for each $1 of eligible purchases made using your card account at Amazon.com. 3% Back is earned on purchases made at Amazon.com (including digital downloads, Amazon.com Gift Cards, Amazon Fresh orders, Amazon Prime subscriptions, and items sold by third-party merchants through Amazon.com's marketplace). 3% Back is not earned on purchases from merchants using Pay with Amazon, or purchases made at international Amazon retail sites (including but not limited to Amazon.ca, Amazon.co.uk, Amazon.de, Amazon.fr, or Amazon.co.jp), or any other website operated by Amazon, in Amazon's sole discretion. This equates to $0.03 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 3 points, for each $1 spent.
 - For example, if you spend $100 using your card account at Amazon.com, you will earn $3 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 300 points.
- › 2% Back for each $1 spent in the following rewards categories: gas stations; drugstores; restaurants; office supply stores through May 31, 2017. This equates to $0.02 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 2 points, for each $1 spent.
 - For example, if you spend $100 using your card account on a purchase in one of these categories, you will earn $2 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 200 points.

- › 1% Back for each $1 spent on all other purchases. This equates to $0.01 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 1 point, for each $1 spent.
 - For example, if you spend $100 using your card account on any other purchase, you will earn $1 in % Back rewards, which is equal to 100 points.

5. When you earn 5% Back or 3% Back at Amazon.com.

- (a) If the Amazon.com account through which you applied for your card account has an eligible Prime membership and your card account is loaded into that Amazon.com account, your card account will automatically earn 5% Back on Amazon.com purchases, except as noted below in this section 5(a). However, if you switched Amazon.com accounts, use multiple Amazon.com accounts, or your card account is loaded into multiple Amazon.com accounts, then your card account may not automatically earn 5% Back on Amazon.com purchases and may instead earn 3% Back on Amazon.com purchases. In such cases, you will need to confirm your card account number and select your card account on that Amazon.com account with eligible Prime membership in order to earn 5% Back on Amazon.com purchases. Visit the "Manage Payment Options" page via "Your Account" page on Amazon.com as described in section 6 below to learn how. Once you've confirmed and selected your card account, your card account will earn 5% Back on Amazon.com purchases, except as noted in this section 5(a).

Your card account will no longer earn 5% Back and will earn 3% Back instead, if the Amazon.com account from which you applied for your card account:

- no longer has an eligible Prime membership;
 - no longer has your card account loaded in that Amazon.com account;
 - is closed;
 - is used to select a different card account to earn 5% Back at Amazon.com; or
 - is used to apply for another Amazon Rewards Visa card account that is approved and loaded in that Amazon.com account; that new card account will earn 5% Back at Amazon.com.
- (b) If the Amazon.com account through which you applied for your card account does not have an eligible Prime membership and your card account is loaded into that Amazon.com account, your card account will earn 3% Back on Amazon.com purchases. If your card account is currently earning 3% Back and is loaded into an Amazon.com account with an eligible Prime membership, you will need to confirm and select your card account to earn 5% Back at Amazon.com. Visit the "Manage Payment Options" page via "Your Account" page on Amazon.com as described in section 6 below to learn how. Once you've confirmed and selected your card account, your card account will earn 5% Back on Amazon.com purchases until that Amazon.com account with eligible Prime membership:
- no longer has an eligible Prime membership;
 - no longer has your credit card account loaded in that Amazon.com account;
 - is closed;

Amazon Rewards Program Agreement

- is used to select a different card account to earn 5% Back at Amazon.com; or
- is used to apply for another Amazon Rewards Visa card account that is approved and loaded in that Amazon.com account; that new card account will earn 5% Back at Amazon.com.

(c) In all other cases, your card account will earn 3% Back at Amazon.com.

6. How to see if your card account earns 5% Back at

Amazon.com. To see if your card account earns 5% Back on Amazon.com purchases, follow these steps:

- › sign into an Amazon.com account where your card account is loaded;
- › visit “Your Account” page;
- › visit the “Manage Payment Options” page under “Payment Methods” section; and
- › expand the details of your credit card.

The details of your credit card will specify if your card account earns 5% Back or 3% Back on Amazon.com purchases. If that Amazon.com account has eligible Prime membership, and your card account could be earning 5% Back on Amazon.com purchases, you will also be told how to start earning 5% Back on Amazon.com purchases. For each Amazon.com transaction you have already made, you will be able to check on chase.com whether you earned 5% Back or 3% Back on Amazon.com purchases.

In accordance with the above terms, Amazon is notifying Chase, at the time your eligible Amazon.com order is placed, whether the purchase earns 5% Back or 3% Back.

Ways to earn bonus points

- We may offer you ways to earn bonus points through the program or special promotions. You'll find out more about the number of bonus points you can earn and any other terms at or before the time of each eligible offer. The terms of this agreement will apply to any such offer. If there is any inconsistency between this agreement and the offer terms, the offer terms will prevail to the extent of such inconsistency.

Other information about the earning and availability of points

- Points are earned at the close of each monthly billing cycle, based on the purchases made during that billing cycle, plus any bonus points posted during that billing cycle, but minus any returns or refunds. If you have more returns or refunds than points earned from purchases or bonuses, then points will be deducted from your total point balance and may result in a negative point balance.
- You'll see points you've earned on chase.com and on your monthly card account billing statement.
- Points earned in a monthly billing cycle are generally available to be used at the beginning of the next billing cycle; however, points earned on purchases made near the end of a billing cycle may take up to one additional billing cycle to become available.

How you can use your points

- You can use your points to redeem for any available reward options. Options may include eligible purchases at Amazon.com, travel, cash, and gift cards.
- When you use points to redeem for eligible purchases at Amazon.com, travel, cash, and gift cards, each point is worth $.01

(one cent), which means that 100 points equals $1 in redemption value. Redemption values for other reward options may be worth more or less than that.

- You are responsible for how points are used, including if you allow authorized users to access or use your points.
- To use your points, minimum and maximum amounts may apply. We'll let you know about any minimum or maximum amounts, as well as any additional terms and conditions, before you use your points.
- Once points have been used, the transaction is considered final and may not be canceled unless otherwise noted.
- When you use your points to redeem for travel, cash and gift cards, as described below, the amount of time it takes to deliver those items to you depends on the item. Some items can't be shipped to PO Boxes or foreign addresses.
- Applicable sales/use taxes, fees, surcharges, and shipping and handling charges are your responsibility.
- We're not responsible for replacing lost, stolen or damaged redemption items, including certificates, tickets or gift cards or for a merchant's failure to honor them.

Shop with Points at Amazon.com

- You can use your points for all or part of a payment for the purchase of eligible items at Amazon.com.
- If you don't have enough points to pay for a purchase at Amazon.com, you can pay the additional cost with an Amazon.com Gift Card, an Amazon Payments, Inc. payments account, or your card account.
- We may deduct the number of points that you use for your Amazon.com purchase from your points balance when you place your order or when your order has shipped, as long as your card account is open, not in default, and you have enough points to cover your purchase. Your points balance may not reflect pending transactions.
- For orders that remain unfulfilled for 30 days, your points will automatically be credited back to your card account.
- For valid returns or cancellations, your points will be credited back to your card account.
- If points were used for a completed purchase at Amazon.com, you may contact Amazon to cancel your purchase or make any other changes.
- Returns and refunds are subject to Amazon's policies.

- For any change or cancellation requests, please call us at 1-855-234-2538. Change or cancellation fees may apply and will be charged directly to your card account. Change or cancellation fees are based on the cash price of travel. If a refund is granted for travel booked in whole or in part with points, you'll receive a credit to your points balance for the amount of points used. If you fail to arrive for your booked travel arrangements as scheduled, all payments whether made with points or your card account will be forfeited.
- All additional costs, such as baggage fees, seat fees, fees charged by the airlines, passenger facility charges, international entry or departure taxes and/or fees, resort fees, hotel energy surcharges, any charges for incidentals and any applicable local taxes and fees, are at the traveler's expense. Travelers should be prepared to pay in cash, in local currency, on location directly to the travel service provider.
- All airline tickets will be issued as e-tickets, unless e-tickets are not available due to airline restrictions. If an e-ticket is unavailable, you'll be mailed a paper ticket at no charge. However, if an e-ticket is available and you request a paper ticket, you may be charged a service fee and shipping/handling charges. All paper tickets will be shipped within 48 hours to the address you provide.
- For car rentals, minimum age requirements may vary and there may be a maximum age. Some hotels have a minimum age requirement for check-in.

- Go to chase.com/amazonrewards or call the number on the back of your credit card to request your cash.
- Card account statement credits will reduce your balance, but you are still required to make at least your minimum payment.

Products and services

- We may give you opportunities to use your points for all or part of a payment for the purchase of eligible products or services directly through third party merchants or service providers. In order to do so, you may be required to register with the merchant or service provider, which may include providing your card account information and agreeing to additional terms of use.

- › To participate, you may be required to authorize Chase to share information about your card account with the third party. We'll provide you with additional details as required by law.

 - › if we suspect that you've engaged in fraudulent activity related to your card account or the program.
 - › if we suspect that you've misused the program in any way, for example:
 - by repeatedly opening or otherwise maintaining credit card accounts for the purpose of generating rewards
- You can begin earning and using points again in the next billing cycle after your card account becomes current or when we no longer suspect fraud or misuse of the card account or program.

How you could lose your points

- Your points don't expire as long as your card account is open, however, you'll immediately lose all your points if your card account status changes, or your card account is closed, for any of the following reasons:

Amazon Rewards Program Agreement

- If we decide to cancel the program, you'll have at least 30 days from the date we cancel the program to use your points, as long as you don't lose them for any of the reasons described in this agreement. If you don't use your points during that time, you'll lose them.
- If we're notified of your death, your points will be automatically redeemed for cash in the form of a card account statement credit, as long as the minimum cash redemption amount is available. If your points are below the minimum amount, you'll lose them.
- We won't reinstate points you lose, unless we've made an error.
