

Disney Rewards Dollars Terms and Conditions for Disney® Visa® Credit Cards

Important information

- The Disney Rewards Dollars are a benefit for Disney® Visa® and Disney® Premier Visa® Credit cardmembers that is operated and managed by Chase Bank USA, N.A. and is offered by Disney Rewards, LLC. These Terms and Conditions refer to Disney Visa Credit Cards and Disney Premier Visa Credit Cards collectively as the “Disney Visa Credit Cards”. Disney Visa Credit Cards are issued by Chase Bank USA, N.A. You are automatically enrolled to begin earning Rewards Dollars upon approval of your Disney Visa Credit Card.
- In these Terms and Conditions, several words have special meanings and their definitions can be found at the end of these Terms and Conditions.
- These Terms and Conditions describe how you can earn and redeem your Rewards Dollars using Disney Rewards Redemption Cards or Airline Statement Credits.
- Any use of your Card indicates your acceptance of these Terms and Conditions. These Terms and Conditions are binding upon you and your Authorized Users. Any actions taken by us or communications from us are effective with respect to and binding on you and your Authorized Users.
- We may make changes to these Terms and Conditions at any time and any changes will be considered part of these Terms and Conditions. Changes might cause you to lose some or all of your Rewards Dollars (whether in your Account or on your Redemption Cards).
- These Terms and Conditions make up the entire terms and conditions applicable to Rewards Dollars. We will let you know of any future changes to these Terms and Conditions by posting the updated version on DisneyRewards.com. We encourage you to check DisneyRewards.com periodically to familiarize yourself with any changes to these Terms and Conditions. In addition, Chase will provide you with 30 days’ notice of the following types of changes:
 - › if applicable fees are added or increased
 - › if the rate at which you earn Rewards Dollars is changed
 - › if the number of Rewards Dollars you can earn is limited
 - › if the Rewards Dollars benefit is cancelled.
- This version of the Terms and Conditions takes the place of any earlier versions, including those that were called “Disney Rewards Program Terms & Conditions”. We may continue to refer to these Terms and Conditions as the “Disney Rewards Program Terms & Conditions” in communications about the Rewards Dollars benefit and in supplemental terms, conditions, disclosures, and agreements.

How you can earn Rewards Dollars

- To be eligible to earn Rewards Dollars for purchases made with a Card, you must use your Card to make Qualifying Purchases of goods and services from merchants under the terms of your Cardmember Agreement. (You may request a copy of your Cardmember Agreement by logging into your Account at Chase.com or by calling Chase at 1-888-338-9464.)
- You’ll earn Rewards Dollars when you, or your Authorized Users, use a Card to make Qualifying Purchases. Buying products and services with your Card, in most cases, will count as a Qualifying Purchase; however, the following types of transactions and purchases won’t count and won’t earn Rewards Dollars:
 - › balance transfers
 - › cash advances

- › travelers checks, foreign currency, money orders, wire transfers or similar cash-like transactions
- › lottery tickets, casino gaming chips, race track wagers or similar betting transactions
- › any checks that access your Account
- › interest
- › unauthorized or fraudulent charges
- › fees of any kind, including an annual fee, if applicable.
- We can determine, in our sole discretion, whether a particular transaction is a Qualifying Purchase. We can add purchase or transaction types to this list or remove purchase or transaction types from this list at any time.
- All Disney Visa cardmembers earn:
 - › 1% in Rewards Dollars for each $1 spent on Qualifying Purchases on the Card (minus any returns or refunds).
 - For example, if you spend $100 on a Qualifying Purchase, you will earn 1 Rewards Dollar. $100 multiplied by 1% or .01 equals 1 Rewards Dollar.
- Disney Premier Visa cardmembers earn:
 - › An additional 1% in Rewards Dollars for each $1 spent when your Card is used for Qualifying Purchases at:
 - Disney Locations, or
 - at a merchant in any of the following rewards categories: gas stations, grocery stores or restaurants (For clarity, you will receive an additional 1% in Rewards Dollars on top of the standard 1% for a total of 2% on these Qualifying Purchases).
 - For example, if you spend $100 on a Qualifying Purchase at a merchant in the restaurant category, you will earn 2 Rewards Dollars. $100 multiplied by 2% or .02 equals 2 Rewards Dollars.
 - › Rewards Categories: Merchants who accept Visa credit cards are assigned a merchant code, which is determined by the merchant or its processor in accordance with Visa procedures based on the primary types of products and services the merchant sells. Chase groups similar merchant codes into categories for purposes of making rewards offers to you. Please note:
 - Chase makes every effort to include all relevant merchant codes in its listed rewards categories. However, even though a merchant or some of the items that it sells may appear to fit within a rewards category, the merchant may not have a merchant code in that category. When this occurs, purchases with that merchant won’t qualify for the additional 1% in Rewards Dollars
 - Purchases submitted by you, your Authorized Users, or the merchant through third-party payment accounts, mobile or wireless card readers, online or mobile digital wallets, or similar technology will not qualify in a rewards category if the technology is not set up to process the purchase in that rewards category
 - We can determine which purchases qualify for any additional 1% in Rewards Dollars regardless of how they are identified, billed by the merchant or where the transaction occurs. For more information, see the FAQs at DisneyRewards.com/FAQs.
- If any calculations result in a fractional Rewards Dollar value, then the fractional amount will be rounded up to the nearest one one-hundredth (0.01) of a Rewards Dollar. For example, if a calculation results in 1.051 Rewards Dollars, you will be awarded 1.06 Rewards Dollars.

Ways to earn bonus Rewards Dollars

- From time to time we may offer you ways to earn bonus Rewards Dollars, including through special promotions. Details and any additional terms and conditions will be provided to you at the time of the offer and will be considered part of these Terms and Conditions.

Other information about the earning and availability of Rewards Dollars

- Rewards Dollars are earned at the close of each monthly billing cycle, based on the Qualifying Purchases made during that billing cycle, plus any bonus Rewards Dollars posted during that billing cycle, but minus any returns or refunds. If you have more returns or refunds than Rewards Dollars earned from Qualifying Purchases or bonuses, then Rewards Dollars will be deducted from your total Rewards Dollars balance and may result in a negative Rewards Dollars balance.
- Rewards Dollars earned in a monthly billing cycle are not available to be used until you see them in your Account or on your statement (usually at the end of that billing cycle). However, Rewards Dollars earned on Qualifying Purchases made near the end of a billing cycle or bonus Rewards Dollars earned through a promotion may take several additional billing cycles to become available.
- You'll see Rewards Dollars you've earned on Chase.com and on your monthly Card billing statement. Please note that on your Card billing statement, Disney Premier Visa cardmembers will see the additional Rewards Dollars earned from purchases made at Disney Locations and in relevant rewards categories separately from the Rewards Dollars earned on all purchases.

Value of Rewards Dollars

- Every Rewards Dollar you earn is equal to $1 when redeeming toward eligible Disney goods and services.
- Rewards Dollars and Redemption Cards are not your property and have no cash or monetary value. They can't be redeemed for cash or its equivalent, and any unused portion is not returnable as cash.

balance of Rewards Dollars will remain on the Redemption Card. No cash or other financial compensation will be returned to you when the price of the item purchased is less than the number of Rewards Dollars on your Redemption Card.

- Disney merchandise redeemed with Rewards Dollars can be returned at designated Disney Locations, subject to return policies that may vary by retail location. Please have an original receipt and a valid Redemption Card available at the time of the return so that Rewards Dollars can be restored to your Redemption Card.

Managing your Rewards Dollars

- You can go to DisneyRewards.com or call the number on the back of your Card, for a variety of activities helpful in managing your Rewards Dollars including:
 - › Checking the balance on your Redemption Card. We don't send summaries of Redemption Card activity. It's your responsibility to keep track of the activity on your Redemption Card
 - › Transferring additional Rewards Dollars from your Account to a new or existing Redemption Card. After your first transfer of 20 Rewards Dollars, all subsequent transfers to an existing or new Redemption Card need to be at least 10 Rewards Dollars.
- You must promptly report lost, stolen or damaged Redemption Cards to Chase by calling 1-800-436-7999. Chase will cancel any lost, stolen or damaged Redemption Card and provide you with a replacement Redemption Card.
 - › The replacement Redemption Card will include the number of Rewards Dollars that was on your lost, stolen or damaged Redemption Card as of the time you notified Chase. Any Rewards Dollars used prior to that time, whether by you or anyone else, cannot be restored.

Rewards Dollar expiration

- Rewards Dollars in your Account that are not transferred to a Redemption Card or applied as an Airline Statement Credit (as described below) will expire 5 years after the month they were first earned. You'll have 60 billing cycles after the billing cycle in which Rewards Dollars first appear on your monthly Card billing statement to transfer or apply them – as long as you don't lose them for any of the reasons described in the "How you could be prohibited from earning or redeeming Rewards Dollars or could lose Rewards Dollars" section of these Terms and Conditions.
 - › Rewards Dollars in your Account will expire on a first-in, first-out basis
 - › Rewards Dollars transferred from your Account to a Redemption Card will never expire

- › If you were issued a Redemption Card in 2015, it may have an expiration date on it. If you haven't redeemed all of the Rewards Dollars prior to the expiration date on the Redemption Card, you may transfer those Rewards Dollars to a new Redemption Card. Once your Rewards Dollars are transferred to a new Redemption Card, these Rewards Dollars won't expire.

- Each Rewards Dollar can be redeemed for a $1 credit on your monthly billing statement toward the price of a ticket purchased on any airline.
- You can purchase your airline ticket directly from the airline or through a travel agent or travel wholesaler. To qualify for an Airline Statement Credit, the airline ticket has to be purchased using your Disney Premier Visa Card regardless of the name on the airline ticket.
- The minimum Airline Statement Credit you can request is $50 which requires a minimum of 50 Rewards Dollars. Multiple airline travel purchases can be combined to meet the $50 minimum if necessary.
- You can request an Airline Statement Credit for any airline ticket purchased within 60 days prior to the request, where permitted by law.
- Go to DisneyRewards.com or call the number on the back of your Card to request your Airline Statement Credit. Please have all information about your airline ticket purchase available when you log in or call to redeem.

Until the Airline Statement Credit posts, we recommend you pay the full amount on your Card billing statement to avoid finance charges.
- Airline Statement Credits will reduce your balance, but you are still required to make at least your minimum payment.
- Once Rewards Dollars have been redeemed for an Airline Statement Credit, the transaction is considered final and may not be canceled unless otherwise noted.
- Redemption Cards can't be used to redeem an Airline Statement Credit.
- We can determine which Disney Premier Visa Credit Card purchases qualify for an Airline Statement Credit.
